CHARLES-TOWN, DECEMBER 8.

LAST Wednesday evening came in over the bar, and the next morning anchored before the town, the ship London, Alexander Curling, master, from London; with no leſs than Two Hundred and Fifty-ſeven CHESTS OF TEA on board, which were ſhipped by the Eaſt-India Company in London, and conſigned to ROGER SMITH, Eſq; and Meſſrs. LEGER & GREENWOOD, merchants here, to be by them received and diſpoſed of in this province, after the payment of a Duty of three-pence ſterling a pound, impoſed (in the year 1767) by the very ſame act of parliament of Great-Britain, which alſo laid the (ſince repealed) duties on paper, paints and glaſs, for the EXPRESS PURPOSE OF RAISING A REVENUE IN AMERICA, WITHOUT OUR CONSENT, and which duty on Tea was, by the Miniſtry, expreſſly declared to be retained, not for the ſake of the revenue it might produce, but merely to eſtabliſh a precedent, to confirm the power aſſumed by the ſame parliament, in the declaratory act, TO PASS LAWS BINDING UPON THE COLONIES IN ALL CASES WHATSOEVER—which, if admitted in America, will be acknowledging an equal power, to raiſe hearth-money on, and to tax the coloniſts for even the light of heaven—and render repreſentatives of their choice merely nominal.

So great a quantity of Tea arriving at once, under ſuch circumſtances, juſtly gave an univerſal alarm: For, though the importations of a few cheſts, from time to time, in the ſeveral London ſhips had been overlooked (not being ſuſpected) thoſe who thought it would be criminal tamely to give up any of our eſſential rights as Britiſh ſubjects, and involve our poſterity in a ſtate little better than ſlavery, began to look about them, and to think it high time to contend, legally, and to diſpute the aſſumed power.

In theſe circumſtances, hand bills were diſtributed on Thurſday, and advertiſements ſtuck up at all the uſual and moſt public places, inviting all the inhabitants, without exception, particularly the landholders, to aſſemble in the Great Hall over the Exchange at 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon, as well with a view to prevent any raſh or violent proceedings, as to take the ſenſe of the people ſo collected, what would be abſolutely neceſſary to be done in the preſent caſe?

The inhabitants accordingly met on Friday—and a very worthy and hon. Gentleman, having been unanimouſly requeſted to take the chair, was placed therein.

After ſome time ſpent in calm deliberation, it appeared, to be the ſenſe of the people, that the gentlemen in trade ſhould be requeſted to enter immediately into a written agreement, not to import any more teas, that would pay duties, laid for the UNCONSTITUTIONAL purpoſe of raiſing a revenue upon us, WITHOUT OUR CONSENT—which ſenſe being declared by Mr. Chairman, the form of a proper agreement was called for, approved of, and ſigned, by ſeveral of the gentlemen preſent, and runs in the following expreſs words, viz.

WE the underwritten, do hereby agree, not to import, either directly or indirectly, any teas that will pay the preſent duty, laid by an act of the Britiſh Parliament, for the purpoſe of raiſing a revenue in America.

It was next propoſed and agreed to, that the gentlemen to whom the Eaſt-India Company's tea had been conſigned, ſhould be deſired to attend; and that Mr. CHAIRMAN, ſhould acquaint them, that the receiving the ſaid tea, ſubject to a duty which they apprehended to be UNCONSTITUTIONALLY laid, would be exceedingly diſagreeable to their fellow-citizens, and the body of inhabitants of this province; and that therefore it was requeſted, THEY would not accept the ſaid commiſſion, but return the tea, to the proprietors thereof, in the ſame bottom that brought it.

Mr. SMITH, and Meſſrs. LEGER & GREENWOOD, accordingly attended; and Mr. CHAIRMAN having delivered what he had in Charge, thoſe gentlemen ſeverally ſhewed the regard they had for their country, by declining to receive the tea, as the people had requeſted—and Mr. Smith added, to his laſting honour, that HE had determined ſome Weeks before it arrived, not to have any concern in a buſineſs, which his countrymen conceived to have ſo fatal a tendency. This was followed by repeated thanks, and loud ſhouts of applauſe.

Capt. Curling apprehending himſelf involved in ſome Difficulties, by this determination, then deſired to be informed, how he ſhould extricate himſelf from them. He was anſwered, "by "keeping all the tea on board his Veſſel, and returning with it "to England."

A committee was then appointed, to wait, the next day, upon ſuch gentlemen in trade, and other importers, as were not preſent, with the agreement already ſigned by ſeveral, not to import any more teas, ſubject to the aforeſaid duty, in order that they might add their names: And the committee were, Capt. GADSDEN, Col. PINCKNEY, THOMAS FERGUSON, CHARLES-COTESWORTH PINCKNEY, Eſqrs; and Mr. DANIEL CANNON. Then the meeting was diſſolved, after unfeigned thanks had been returned to the Chairman, &c.

On Saturday the ſaid committee diligently and faithfully performed what was requeſted of them: And we have the pleaſure to inform the public, that upwards of Fifty reſpectable names were that day ſubſcribed to the agreement. Some gentlemen were abſent, others deſired a little time to conſider of the matter; they will both have an opportunity to ſubſcribe their names as ſoon as it is determined in whoſe hands the agreement ſhall be lodged.

In the mean time, the principal planters and landholders have thought it proper to enter into another agreement, which is ſigning very faſt, and, we are told, runs in theſe words, viz.

WE the underſigned, inhabitants of this province, being now fully convinced, that we have vainly flattered ourſelves, with hopes of the repeal of an act of parliament of Great-Britain, paſſed in the year 1767, impoſing a duty on teas imported from thence, for the purpoſe of raiſing a revenue upon us, in America, without our conſent, DO hereby ſolemnly promiſe and agree, each for him or herſelf, that we will not, either directly or indirectly import, buy or ſell, or any way encourage or countenance the importation, buying or ſelling, any teas that will pay the aforeſaid duty: And that we will not purchaſe any goods of any perſon or perſons whatſoever, that ſhall hereafter import, buy or ſell any ſuch teas: And this we do, becauſe we conceive, that the payment of ſuch duties, will be acknowledging a power which the Britiſh Parliament hath aſſumed, and which we deny them to have under our excellent conſtitution, "to tax us againſt our conſent."

The eſtabliſhing of Tea Ware-Houſes in America, by the India company, 'tis ſaid, is intended to pave the way for introducing large Factories for other goods, at all the principal ports, and then to bring in an Honourable Board of EXCISE.

At the anniverſary meeting of the ST. CECILIA SOCIETY, held on the 22d inſt. the following officers were elected for the enſuing year, viz. Hon. Rawlins Lowndes, preſident, John Deas, Eſq; vice-preſident, Mr. John Owen, treaſurer, Mr. Thomas Eveleigh, ſteward, and Charles-Matthews Coſſlett, Thomas Heyward, jun. Iſaac Huger, Thomas Bee, Robert Philp, Hugh Rutledge, Alexander Inglis, Eſqrs. Rev. John Bullman, Rev. Robert Purcel, Doct. Fayſoux, and Mr. William Carſan, managers.

The ST. ANDREW'S CLUB held their anniverſary meeting laſt tueſday, and thoſe officers, viz. Hon. John Stuart, preſident, David Deas, Eſq; vice-preſident, James Simpſon, Eſq; aſſiſtant, Mr. Charles Johnſton, treaſurer, and James Briſbane, Eſq; clerk.

The commiſſion which it was neceſſary to obtain from the American board of commiſſioners at Boſton, before ROBERT H. HALLIDAY, Eſq; collector of his majeſty's cuſtoms for this port, could take poſſeſſion of his office, is received by that gentleman, over land.

More than one hundred paſſengers are come, in the veſſels that have arrived here ſince our laſt, from London, Falmouth, Leith, and Burrowſtouneſs; amongſt them, Mrs. Morris and Miſs Morris, Miſs Stuart (daughter of the hon. John Stuart) Miſs Dutarque, two Miſſes Murray (nieces to the hon. Juſtice Murray) John Dutarque, George Herriot, Elias Vanderhorſt, Eſqrs. Lieut. Patrick Stuart, Meſſrs. John Hodſden, Thomas Moultrie, William Greenwood, John Tunno, William Moultrie, jun. Nicholas Eveleigh (ſon of the late Samuel Eveleigh, Eſq;) Francis Salvador, Leſley, Fox, Bryan, Rainsford, Sanders, Cookſon, Tims, Samuel Waddingham, Doct. George Logan (ſon of Will. Logan, Eſq;) Doct. Baker & Mrs. Baker.

There are alſo arrived here, in the Pallas, Capt. John Turner, from Jamaica, Charles Gordon, Eſq; Capt. Shairp, and Mr. George Mouatt, merchant.

And in the North-Carolina Packet, from Philadelphia, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Goodman, and others, of the American company of Comedians.

Mr. John Torrans, merchant, is returned from Madera and the Weſt-Indies, in the Brigt. Cumberland, Capt. Bryant.

A tranſport-ſhip is put into Jamaica, with Capt. Johnſton's company of artillery on board, bound from New-York for Penſacola. The ſhip is called the Eagle.

The Ship Edward, Capt. Grayſon, of and for Liverpoole, from this port, is loſt near Holyhead.

Capt. Eſtes, of one of our coaſters, on wedneſday laſt, conducted into Beaufort harbour, a ſloop called the Succeſs, the maſter's name Batten, out upwards of 30 days from Dominica, of and for New-England, that had been aſhore on cape Romain, where ſhe loſt her anchors, and ſuſtained other damage.

Laſt week Mr. John Edwards, jun. merchant on St. Helena iſland, was married to Miſs Polly Barksdale, daughter of Mr. George Barksdale.

On tueſday died, Mr. Alexanner Perroneau, junior, ſon of Alexander Peronneau, Eſq.

Yeſterday died, much lamented by all that knew her, Mrs. Charlotte McCall, the wife of Mr. John McCall, jun.

DAVID TUBIER,

Acquaints his Friends, and the Public in general,

THAT he has entered a Shop in Elliott-Street, nearly oppoſite the Iriſh Linen Ware-houſe, where he carries on the GUNSMITH's BUSINESS in all its Branches, and hopes to give Satisfaction to thoſe Gentlemen who are pleaſed to favour him with their Commands, whoſe Orders ſhall be gratefully acknowleged and ſpeedily anſwered.

THIS is to give Notice to all Perſons, not to give Credit to any Perſon in my Name, without a written Order from myſelf or Wife, as I am determined to pay no ſuch Debt as may be contracted otherwiſe, from this 2d of December, 1773. JOHN REMINGTON, ſen.

My Friends and Countrymen,

I Went to town and attended your general meeting on the 3d inſtant—and returned home quite happy, as your proceedings fully confirmed the good opinion I had entertained of you.

The record will reflect laſting honour on you, that you did not aſſent to the receiving the 257 cheſts of TEA brought by capt. Curling, while clogg'd with a duty unconſtitutionally impoſed.

The diſintereſted conduct of the gentlemen to whom the Tea was addreſſed, was truly noble, and muſt endear their names to poſterity: And thoſe other gentlemen, who have engaged to import no more, are entitled to much of your regard.

But, with deference, I beg leave to obſerve, that had they engaged, and originated the reſolution among themſelves, to diſcontinue and diſcountenance the importation of Teas totally, at leaſt 'till the offenſive duty ſhould be repealed, it would have prevented every attempt to impoſe it upon us, for which a door, in my opinion, ſeems to be left open.

Moſt of thoſe who profeſs patriotiſm, wiſh that had been done—many alſo wiſh, that the quantities lying in the ſeveral importers hands, had been enquired of, bought in, and made a public bonfire of: and alſo, that what is already ordered, and cannot be prevented coming, could be diſpoſed of in the ſame manner. Indeed, if a total diſuſe of India Teas could take place, a very great phyſical as well as political evil would be removed.

See, my dear ladies (for now I addreſs myſelf to you) what the learned and very eminent Dr. TISSOT ſays of it. "Amongſt the favourite beverages, the WORST is the infuſion of that famous leaf ſo well known by the name of TEA, which, to our great detriment, has every year, for theſe two centuries paſt, been conſtantly imported from China and Japan. This moſt pernicious gift, firſt DESTROYS the ſtrength of the ſtomach, and, if not ſoon laid aſide, equally deſtroys that of the VISCERA, the BLOOD, the NERVES, and the whole body; ſo that malignant and all chronical diſorders will encreaſe, eſpecially nervous diſorders, in proportion as the uſe of TEA becomes common: And you may eaſily form a judgment from the diſeaſes that prevail in every country, whether the inhabitants are lovers of TEA, or the contrary. How happy would it be for Europe [how happy too for America] if, by unanimous conſent, the importation of this infamous leaf was prohibited, which is endued only with a corroſive force, derived from the acrimony of the gum with which it is pregnant: for experience ſhews, that what it has of an aſtringent principle is loſt in the warm water."

To return to our ſubject. My dear friends and countrymen! It hath been advanced, that PORT Wine, of which very large quantities have, of late years, been poured in upon us, from all parts of Great-Britain (and every bottle of it genuine and wholeſome to be ſure) is likewiſe clogg'd with a duty for raiſing a revenue in America. As I am but a Planter, and almoſt totally ignorant of the nature of Trade (farther than getting as much money as I can, for my Rice, Indico, Cattle, &c.) it may be ſo, for aught I know: But, if it is, certainly 'tis high time to take every warrantable ſtep in our power, not only to remove this impoſition, but alſo to prevent every other that may be attempted to be laid upon the ſame principle.

It is therefore hoped, that you will ſoon have another GENERAL MEETING, to receive the fulleſt and cleareſt information in theſe matters—at the ſame time that your laſt Committee deliver in a report, on what they had in charge. Perhaps it might be moſt proper to meet in the forenoon, to prevent the imputation of too precipitate determinations: when I would humbly ſubmit to your conſideration, the propriety of entering into one general agreement, inſtead of the two now ſigning, ſomething in the nature following:

WE the ſubſcribers, do hereby ſolemnly promiſe and agree, each for him or herſelf, that we will not, either directly or indirectly, import, buy, ſell, or countenance the importing, buying, ſelling, or uſing any [here may be recited every particular article, upon which it ſhall clearly appear a duty is impoſed contrary to the fundamental principles of the Engliſh conſtitution] or any other goods or merchandizes whatſoever, whereon any duties are, or hereafter may be impoſed, by any power which the conſtitution of England does not warrant or authorize, until ſuch duties ſhall be reſpectively repealed.

Perhaps a like reſolution, in regard to the importation of Negroes too, would do more good than harm.

Would the gentlemen in Trade lead in this matter, the jealouſies that unhappily prevail would ſubſide, and the landholders be convinced, that they are embarked in one common intereſt with them—and I dare venture to affirm, that the whole province will chearfully follow ſo laudable an example.

For your country's ſake! then—for your own, and your poſterity's ſakes—for the ſake of millions of infants yet unborn! let me once more exhort you, to UNITE FIRMLY—and prove yourſelves worthy of that Liberty, which diſtinguiſhes, and is the boaſt of, BRITISH SUBJECTS.

JUNIUS BRUTUS.

JOHN FORD, J P.

By the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſquire, Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the ſaid Province.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, I have received Information, on the Oaths of ſundry Perſons, that the Murrain, which ſome Years ago raged with great Mortality amongſt the Neat Cattle in this Province, has lately appeared, particularly among ſundry Cattle which were driven from Ranges ſituated between Broad and Saludy Rivers, and Long Canes, which have been brought to Charles-Town; ſome whereof have been killed and brought to Market, and were ſeized and deſtroyed by the Commiſſioners of the Market, according to Law in that Caſe made and provided; and others remain near the Quarter-Houſe, daily dying thereof. AND WHEREAS, it is of great Conſequence to the Inhabitants of this Province, to prevent as much as poſſible, the ſpreading of that deſtructive Diſtemper, by driving them from one Part of the Province to another; as well as to caution Perſons from purchaſing ſuch Cattle, which will not only be loſt by the Diſtemper, but propagate the Diſtemper to the ſound Cattle: I DO therefore, by the Advice of his Majeſty's Council, publiſh this Proclamation, TO GIVE NOTICE of the ſaid Murrain; and I DO caution all Poſſeſſors of ſuch infected Cattle, againſt driving their Cattle from the infected Range, as by ſuch driving, they will ſpread the Infection without Benefit to themſelves, to the great Damage of thoſe through whoſe Herds of Cattle they paſs, for which they will be anſwerable. AND I recommend that every Precaution and Meaſure, which Experience or Prudence ſhall dictate, may be taken to prevent the ſpreading this EVIL.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the the ſaid Province, this Thirteenth Day of November, 1773, and in the Fourteenth Year of His Majeſty's Reign.

CARRIED OFF the Subſcriber's

Plantation on EDISTO River,

A Negro Woman SLAVE,

NAMED Mary or Myria, about five feet four inches high, long viſaged, about thirty years of age, ſpeaks Engliſh and French very well; hand on an oſnabrug ſhift, a blue negro cloth jacket and petticoat, but very poſſibly may alter her dreſs to ſome other, or put on men's cloaths.

She was ſeen monday the 22d Inſtant on the Auguſta, Road, about eight miles above the Ediſto ſaw mills, in company with a negro fellow, and a white man on horſeback, making towards Auguſta; it is ſuſpected they were going off for the Miſſiſippi, from whence ſaid wench was brought about four years ſince.

I do hereby promiſe a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS currency, to any perſon who will apprehend the white man, and deliver him to the Keeper of the common goal in Charles Town; to be paid on proof made, of his being concerned in carrying off the ſaid wench; and a reward of TWENTY POUNDS currency for the ſaid negro woman, if taken in this province; or FIFTY-POUNDS currency if taken out of the province; to be paid on the delievery of her to Mr. John Milhouſe at the Ediſto Saw-Mills, or to the ſubſcriber in Charles-Town.

A reward of FIFTY POUNDS, will be given to any Perſon, who will give information of her being harboured by white Perſon; upon conviction of the offender, by JOHN WARD.

CHARLES-TOWN November the 29th, 1773.

This is to give Notice,

TO all thoſe that are indebted to ISAAC FORDYCE, deceaſed, by Bond, Note, or Book Accounts, in and about George-Town, that they are deſired to make immediate Payment to Mr. WILLIAM LUPTAN, who is empowered to receive the ſame, and give Diſcharges, therefore thoſe who are concerned, it is expected will take NOTICE and diſcharge the ſame. And all thoſe who are indebted in and about Charles-Town, are deſired to call and pay the Demands there, that they may ſave themſelves Trouble and Expence.

Charles-Town, November 29th, 1773.

MR. LEWIS BORTNAR, of Broad River, informs me of his having found on the Broad Road, about 20 Miles from Charles-Town, a bright bay HORSE, about Fourteen Hands high, and Fourteen Years old, with a mealy Mouth; branded on the mounting Shoulder K, with a Saddle and Saddle-Cloth on. The Owner muſt prove his Property before

Nov. 20, 1773. JOHN TROUP, J. P.

WHEREAS it is currently reported, That I am going to give up my Houſe on the Bay, I do

Hereby give this Public Notice,

That I have no ſuch Intention; and that, during this dull Seaſon paſt, I have been almoſt continually employed in improving and fitting of it up, for the Reception of ſuch GENTLEMEN as may favour me with their Cuſtom;—which Houſe is now completed in as elegant a Manner as it will admit of, all to Out ſide Decoration, and that I humbly hope, the PUBLIC will excuſe, as being a Matter of no real Benefit, and that what I have already done is entirely at my own Expence.—I will therefore, I hope, be ſufficient for me to ſay, that I have as complete a Stock of various LIQUORS, and as good in their different Qualities as any other Tavern or Houſe of Entertainment whatſoever in this Province.—And, as I muſt look upon PUBLIC HOUSE-KEEPING, my only Means to ſupport a LARGE FAMILY, being brought up to no other Trade or Occupation whatever, ſhall make it my conſtant Study and Endeavour to comply with the Expectations of my Cuſtomers; to give general Satisfaction, and always to be the Publick's moſt humble and obedient Servant to command.

EUGENE BRENAN.

N. B. I have Two BILLIARD TABLES, one of which is now completely fitted up in the Houſe, and the other I will DISPOSE of, on eaſy Terms.

 As I ſeem to labour under ſome Diſadvantages, I keeping up an ORDINARY every Day (as adverti ſed in my laſt) a few Gettlemen, who may chuſe to BOARD conſtantly and LODGE, being well provided with Beds and Bedding, will be received, on moderate Terms.

☞ I ſhould eſteem it a very great Favour, of thoſe indebted to me, to make immediate Payment, as there I ſhould be able to withſtand the many Loſſes I have lately undergone;—and thoſe to whom I am any Ways indebted, to bring in their reſpective Accompts immediately, and receive Payment. 3
